LIBRARY CORNER

Storytimes for children continue at Owasso Public Library

By Barbara Barnes
Branch Manager
Owasso Library

2013 by Elaine Marmel offers instructions for people who are visual learners.

TWEEN FICTION

The Heartbreak Messenger by Alexander Vance — Quentin never meant to be a heartbreak messenger but somehow he ended up doing just that until he realizes that his heart could be broken too.

The Fury by Alexander Gordon Smith — to defend themselves, a ragtag group of teens band together at an abandoned amusement park after one day when, without warning, the entire human race turns against them.

JUVENILE FICTION

Violet Mackerel's Natural Habitat by Anna Branford — as the youngest in her family, seven-year-old Violet identifies with small creatures in the natural world, but when she tries to help a special ladybug, she learns an important lesson about animal habitats.

Double Cross by Stuart Gibb — (No. 3 of the Last Musketeer series), when Greg and the Musketeers return to Paris and find the city under siege, they leap into action to prevent King Louis from being overthrown and history from being changed forever.

Our storytimes continue weekly. On Tuesday and Wednesday, we have My First Storytime from 9:30-9:45 for newborns through 2-year-olds. This is followed by Preschool storytime for 3-5 year-olds from 10-10:30 a.m.

We offer Stay and Play from 10:30-11 a.m. For babies and toddlers, playing is learning. Using educational toys and games fosters critical early literacy skills in children.

We offer a Homeschool Story time from 1:30-2:30 p.m. Tuesday afternoons. This is appropriate for children age 5-12. Participants make a craft and have stories.

Ms. Jennifer has a mother/daughter book discussion group that meets from 6-7 the third Thursday of the month which will be Oct. 17. This event is for girls 9-12 and their moms or grandmothers.

Call the library at (918) 549-7624 to register and find out the book title. Copies will be available for check-out at the desk.

ADULT FICTION

The Marriage Trap by Jennifer Probst — a sexy billionaire seeks a faux fiancée, but what is it worth without love?

JUVENILE NONFICTION

What am I? Where am I? by Ted Lewin shows watercolor pictures of different animals and of many different locales where they live.
