Students earn 'Golden Spoon' award

ANITA REDING/SKIATOOK JOURNAL

Marrs Elementary Principal Kris Thompson poses for a photo with students in Jamie Reed's kindergarten class. The students were the winners of a "Golden Spoon" award, which was presented in recognition of their excellent manners displayed in the cafeteria. The "Golden Spoon" awards will be presented monthly to a class in kindergarten, and first and second grades this year. Students in Jill Thompson's first grade class and Kristi Jones' second grade class also received "Golden Spoon" awards. Cafeteria staff members choose the recipients of the "Golden Spoon" awards.
