FROM THE LIBRARY

Library offers digital magazine service

From Linda Wallace,
Skiatook Children's Library Associate

Do you like to read magazines? What if they were free, and readily available? If you answered "yes" to these questions, Zinio from the Tulsa City-County Library System is for you. You can find this service at the following web address: <http://www.tulsalibrary.org/databases/Z>

Zinio provides popular magazines that you can read online in your web browser or offline by downloading the magazine to your computer or mobile device.

These digital magazines are duplicates of the print magazine, including ads. You may download your free Zinio app for your PC, Kindle, Nook, Ipad, etc.

Moms of Preschoolers plan kick-off meeting for Sept. 9 at FBC

From Staff Reports
news@skiatookjournal.com

Are you the mother of small children between the ages of birth through kindergarten? Would you like to find some Mommy friends who know what you're going through? Could you use some uplifting, encouraging fellowship when mothering toward providing high-quality crafts for members and their children, refreshments, childcare during meetings, subscription to MomSense Magazine, a goody bag, and more. Full and partial scholarships are also available. We also hold monthly gym playdates year-round, during which the kids can bring their gets tough? How about regular, free playdates for your children? If you answered yes to any of those questions, then the Skiatook Moms of Preschoolers would like to invite you to join us. We meet monthly on the first Monday of every month from 9-11 a.m. at the gym of First Baptist Skiatook's Oak/Lombard campus. We moms get together for fun, refreshments, crafts, fellowship, and constructive discussions while our children are being doted upon and receive a lesson and craft of their own. Childcare is provided free of charge on-site during our meetings. We encourage you to come try us out. Due to the Labor Day holiday, our first meeting will be held on Monday, Sept. 9, from 9-11 a.m. We welcome moms of all types. Once you've attended a meeting or two, if you decide to join our group, annual membership is $75. The dues go bikes/trikes and toys to play. The kids play, the moms visit, everyone wins. The gym playdates are free, and all moms from the community are invited to attend. Gym playdates are held from 9:30-11 a.m. on the third Monday of every month in the gym of the FBC Skiatook Oak/Lombard campus.

If you have any questions or would like more information, please contact Heidi Gerard at (918) 740-9310.

First meeting

A MOPS (Moms of Preschoolers) kick-off meeting will be 9-11 a.m. Sept. 9 in the gym at FBC Skiatook's Oak/Lombard campus.

There will be refreshments, a craft, fellowship, and a discussion centered around this year's theme: Controlling Your Beautiful Mess.

All who attend will also go into a drawing for a one-hour facial provided by Urban Oasis Spa in Skiatook.

Make a difference. VO LUNTEER
