Henrietta Mann to be inducted in Circle of Honor

By: Journal Record Staff  February 5, 2018  0

TULSA – Tulsa City-County Library's American Indian Resource Center will induct Henrietta Mann into the Circle of Honor during a presentation at 10:30 a.m. March 3 at Zarrow Regional Library, 2224 W. 51st St.

The Circle of Honor award presentation begins a monthlong celebration honoring the achievements and accomplishments of Native Americans. Programs will be held throughout TCCL locations during March. All library events are free and open to the public.

Mann is full-blood Cheyenne of the Cheyenne-Arapaho Tribes of Oklahoma and was the founding president of the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribal College. As a leading expert on American Indian studies, she has lectured throughout the United States, Canada, Germany, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, Spain, The Netherlands and Belgium on American Indian studies.

Mann has taught at the University of Montana-Missoula; the University of California-Berkeley; Harvard University; and Haskell Indian Nations University. She served as director of the Office of Indian Education Programs and deputy to the assistant secretary for the Bureau of Indian Affairs. She was the national coordinator of the American Indian Religious Freedom Act Coalition for the Association of American Indian Affairs.

As the first person to occupy the Endowed Chair in Native American Studies at Montana State University-Bozeman, Mann is a professor emeritus of Native American Studies and is a member of Montana State University's Council of Elders.

The award consists of a $5,000 honorarium and a medallion featuring the American Indian Resource Center's turtle logo.

The Circle of Honor alternates annually with the American Indian Festival of Words Author Award.
