Research your roots during the 16th annual Family History Month series at the Tulsa City-County Library's Genealogy Center next month. It's offering a variety of free programs for new genealogy researchers and longtime enthusiasts.

The series kicks off 10:30- a.m.-12 p.m. July 6 at the Nathan Hale Library, 6038 E. 23rd St., with "Start Your Research @ The Library."

"An Overview of the Genealogy Center" will be held 6:30-7:30 p.m. July 7 at the Bixby Library, 20 E. Breckenridge. Tulsa's Genealogy Center is one of the largest genealogical collections in Oklahoma. It is also a designated FamilySearch Center meaning it can borrow resources from the largest genealogy center in the world, the
