Here are some of the best books to take on vacation and read by the pool this summer. Thrillers, historical fiction, romance, mysteries – this list has it all. These would also be great book club picks.

Luckiest Girl Alive – by Jessica Knoll

Ani FaNelli has reinvented herself as a glamorous career woman striving for a perfect life, but a violent incident from her past threatens to unravel everything and expose a shocking secret.

The Guest Cottage – by Nancy Thayer

When her husband announces he's leaving her for another woman, Sophie Anderson impulsively rents a guest cottage on Nantucket, where she discovers a single father and his son have also rented.

Circling the Sun – by Paula McLain

A captivating novel about Beryl Markham, a record-setting aviator caught up in a passionate love triangle in early twentieth century Africa.

I Almost Forgot About You – by Terry McMillan

Dr. Georgia Young feels stuck and restless despite her wonderful life, so she decides to quit her job as an optometrist and move, discovering a new life and a second chance at love.

The Girls – by Emma Cline

At the end of the 1960s, a lonely and thoughtful teenager is drawn into the circle of a soon-to-be infamous cult and the man who is its charismatic leader.

The Assistants – by Ca-
