On Your Mark, Get Set...Read!

Babies up to children who have completed fourth grade can participate in this year's Summer Reading Program.

Starting May 31, sign up at any of our 24 Tulsa City-County Library locations. When you sign up, you will receive a reading log, your first library visit sticker, an event guide for the summer, and a free bookmark and bag. Starting on May 31, when children read (or listen to) 8 books plus visit the library four times, they will earn a medal and book of coupons for free food and entertainment.

Children who read (or listen to) 12 more books (total of 20) will receive a Bonus Prize. If you have completed the fifth grade, you can participate in the Tween/Teen Summer Reading Program. And, yes, babies can participate in the Summer Reading Program.

Get in the Game...Read!

You must have completed the fifth grade to sign up for the Teen/Tween Summer Reading Program.

Starting May 31, sign up at any Tulsa City-County Library and receive your reading log. Read six books to complete the program and earn an ID wallet with ear buds and coupons for free entertainment and food items. Once you complete the program, you may enter a drawing for cool prizes provided by the Tulsa Library Trust.

Exercise Your Mind...Read!

For ages 16 and older. Read or listen to four books to complete the program. Earn a TCCL messenger bag (while supplies last) and coupons for free treats from our sponsors.
