Tulsa City-County Library's 2016 summer reading programs for children, teens and even adults, encourage readers to keep the pages turning during the summer.

The free annual program is ongoing May 31-Aug. 6. To sign up, children and teens, ages newborn to 17, and adults can register at any Tulsa City-County Library or online at www.TulsaLibrary.org/summer - no library card required!

Those looking to avoid the rush of readers can preregister at their community library or online beginning May 1. There will be two additional grand-prize drawings: one for those who preregister May 1-30, and another for those registering May 1-June 30.

The summer reading program is a fun way to keep students reading throughout the summer to help retain and improve their reading skills. The program goes beyond the books by offering hundreds of free programs that will expand the imagination. Performers and presenters from Tulsa, Oklahoma and
