Write On! READERS AND WRITERS PANEL AND BOOK FAIR

Sat., Jan. 9, 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Hardesty Regional Library, tulsalibrary.org

The process of writing can be a solitary pursuit. Thankfully, Tulsa City-County Library hosts Write On! at Hardesty Regional Library, offering writers a chance to meet, socialize and share ideas.

A panel of publishers and writers will share tips on getting published from 1-2:30 p.m. in the Maple Room. Panelists include Total Publishing & Media, Books-A-Daisy owner and author Karen Graham, Nimrod Editor-in-Chief Ellis O'Neal, Tate Publishing, and authors Will Thomas and Colleen McCarty. Meet and talk with 40 area writers in the Local Author Book Fair. Buy local books, get them signed and support library programming: 10% of sales will be donated to the Tulsa Library Trust.

The program is in conjunction with the Library's 39th annual Adult Creative Writing Contest. The deadline for submissions is January 31.
