What we're reading

Don't Ever Get Old, by

Daniel Friedman

When Buck Schatz, senior citizen and retired Memphis cop, learns that an old adversary may have escaped Germany with a fortune in stolen gold, Buck decides to hunt down the fugitive and claim the loot.

But, a lot of people want a piece of the stolen treasure, and Buck's investigation quickly attracts unfriendly attention from a very motley (and murderous) crew in the book, which is nominated for an Edgar Award for Best First Novel.

The Lost Temple, by Tom Harper

In possession of transcripts of mysterious writings, disgraced former SOE soldier Sam Grant works with an Oxford professor and Greek archaeologist to decipher the writings and keep them away from the CIA and KGB.

Chamber schedules Turkey Bingo Nov. 14

BY MELISSA CARLSON
Contributing Writer

The Collinsville Chamber of Commerce will hold a family bingo event Saturday, Nov. 14, at the Collinsville High School Commons Area, 2400 W. Broadway St.

The bingo event, named Turkey Bingo since it takes place a couple of weeks before Thanksgiving, will serve as a fundraiser for the Collinsville Chamber of Commerce.

From 6-9 p.m., about 30 games of bingo will be played with prizes for winners of all ages. Three frozen turkeys, one each hour, will be given away as bingo prizes. Concession items such as bottled water, soda, candy and other snack items will be available for purchase.

Admission is $5 for adults and $1 for children 12 and younger. Prices includes one bingo card per person. Additional bingo cards may be purchased for $1 per card.

For more information, please contact Melissa Carlson at melissa@collinsvillechamber.org or (918) 371-4703.
