Gear up for holidays with November's featured service

Did you know the Tulsa-City County Library has a gift shop?

You can support your library and buy gifts for yourself and your family this holiday season. The featured service for November is the Library Gift Shop.

You will find the gift shop at www.tulsalibrary.org/giftshop. Browse gift items such as shirts, book bags, mugs, hats and more, featuring the TCCL logo, our "Libraries Change Lives" logo, or Buddy Bookworm. For only $25, receive or gift a "Libraries Change Lives" T-shirt and an annual membership in the Friends of the Library, or purchase a license plate for only $10.

You also can support the library with every purchase you make at www.amazon.com by shopping through the link available on the gift shop page. A portion of all proceeds support the Central Library Renewed Campaign.

If you would like to know more about the Central Library renovations, you can find information, updates and pictures on our Central Library Renewed site at centralrenewed.tulsalibrary.org.

The construction is moving along, with work being done on the parking garage, Fifth Street and interior walls going up inside. The Central Library is on schedule to open in summer 2016.

It will be a state of the art facility, featuring a STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) learning center, an education center, maker spaces, an Oklahoma history room, an auditorium and a children's garden.

A number of versatile meeting rooms will be available to the public. A full service Starbucks will be located at the front entrance of the library.

The Owasso Library will be closed Nov. 11 in honor of Veterans Day. The Tulsa City-County Library will waive fines and fees for active and retired military for their service to our country throughout the month of November.

Please bring your military ID, library card and any overdue items to any TCCL location to have your fines and fees waived.

Don't miss the Books to Treasure event with Derek Anderson. If you have a second grader you may have heard about this event and received a library card application for a special Books to Treasure card.

Second graders also received a free copy of a Hot Rod Hamster book, which they can bring to the event to be signed by the author. This event is at 7 p.m. Friday, Nov. 13, at the Hardesty Regional Library.
