Library resources can help protect intellectual property

The Tulsa City-County Library has a collection of resources and links that can facilitate your efforts to protect your intellectual property.

These resources are in our Business Center Guide. Just click on the tab labeled “Patents, Trademarks & Copyright.”

You will find definitions of each method to help you determine which applies to your idea, as well as links so you can search for existing items or file a new application.

Programs at the Collinsville Library

Join Miss Barbara for Stories

from the Rocking Chair from 10:30-11 a.m. Tuesday Nov. 10. This program is for newborns to 4-year-olds and their caregivers.

Demonstration: Are You Really What You Eat? What happens when food goes bad? What is all the hype about GMO: Gluten free or not? We will examine the foods we eat, explore fun food facts and compare the taste of different foods in this STEM program for ages 10-18. The class is from 3-4 p.m. Monday, Nov. 9.

The All Thumbs Knitters group meets at the Collinsville Library from noon to 2 p.m. each Wednesday. The next meetings are Nov. 4 and 18. The class is for adults.

Patchworkers meets from 6:30-8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 10. If you want to learn to quilt or are already an experienced quilter, join us for a fun and informative evening. The class is for adults.

Collinsville Book Discussion will be held from noon to 1 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 10. Read Dog on It, by Spencer Quinn, and then join us for a lively discussion. Copies of the book are available at the circulation desk. The class is for adults.

What We're Reading

Dog on It, by Spencer Quinn

Meet Chet, the wise and lovable canine narrator of Dog on It, who works alongside Bernie, a down-on-his-luck private investigator. Chet might have flunked out of police school (“I’d been the best leaper in K-9 class, which had led to all the trouble in a way I couldn’t remember exactly, although blood was involved”), but he’s a detective through and through.

With his doggy ways and his endearingly hardboiled voice, Chet is full of heart and occasionally prone to mischief. He is intensely loyal to Bernie, who, though distracted by issues that Chet has difficulty understanding — like divorce, child custody, and other peculiar human concerns — is enormously likable himself, in his flawed, all-too-human way.

How to Cook a Turkey

When we ask our kiddos how to cook a turkey, you never know what fun and interesting recipes you might see!

Look for How to Cook a Turkey, a section in your Owasso Reporter.
