Patrons can volunteer at home to review online catalog

If you love to read and to use social media, we have an opportunity for you.

Share your opinions on our online catalog and get recognized as a volunteer. Bibliocommons is an interactive catalog that benefits from user input, and the better the input, the better the tool.

As a volunteer, you will be trained in how to technically add ratings, tags, similar titles, comments, lists and more, and also how to understand appeal factors and make connections among titles in order to create meaningful content, which will help other users and library staff use the catalog to its fullest potential.

What We're Reading Final Cut, by Catherine Coulter and J.T. Ellison

Scotland Yard's new chief inspector Nicholas Drummond is on the first flight to New York when he learns his colleague, Elaine York, the "minder" of the Crown Jewels for the "Jewel of the Lion" exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, was found murdered.

Then the centerpiece of the exhibit, the infamous

Koh-i-Noor Diamond, is stolen from the Queen Mother's crown. Drummond, American-born but raised in the UK, is a dark, dangerous, fast-rising star in the Yard who never backs down.

And this case is no exception. Special Agents Lacey Sherlock and Dillon Savich from Coulter's bestselling FBI series don't hesitate to help Drummond find the cunning international thief known as the Fox.

Nonstop action and high stakes intensify as the chase gets deadly. The Fox will stop at nothing to deliver the Koh-i-Noor to the man who believes in its deadly prophecy.
