Your library on the go; get the Tulsa Library App

Access your local Tulsa City-County Library anytime, anywhere via the Tulsa Library app.

Use the app to: search the library catalog; request books, movies and music; find a library nearest you; learn a new language; and much more.

Menus are available in Spanish too.

Don't have a library card? Apply using the app and get immediate access to electronic resources and more.

Visit www.TulsaLibrary.org/app to download the free Tulsa Library app today.

Try MOBIUS

MOBIUS items are free, fast and easy. Visit searchmobius.org to try it.

Programs at the Collinsville Library

Do you love to knit or, maybe you just want to learn? All levels of knitting expertise are welcome to attend the All Thumbs Knitters.

This fun group meets from 1-3 p.m. each Wednesday at the Collinsville Library. The next meetings are Aug. 19 and Aug. 26. Come and enjoy an instructional afternoon in a relaxed and encouraging environment.

If you are a fan of Manga, don't miss your chance to meet up with other fans of this popular Japanese storytelling art.

The Sukikyo. Anime Club meets twice monthly at the Collinsville Library. The next meeting will be Wednesday Aug. 26. Come and discuss your favorite books, movies, characters and plot twists with us.

The Collinsville Book Discussion will meet again at noon Tuesday Sept. 8. We will discuss The Eye of God, by James Rollins. Copies of the book are available at the Collinsville Library.

What We're Reading

Legend of Zelda: Four Swords, by Aki-Himekawa

Link struggles to rescue Princess Zelda, who has been kidnapped by Shadow Link, while also trying to deal with the other versions of himself running wild in Hyrule.

House of Leaves, by Ono Natsume

Even though he is a skilled swordsman, Akitsu Masanosuke cannot keep a job as a ronin, a masterless samurai, because he is not scary enough. When he is hired as bodyguard by Yaichi, the leader of a group of outlaws called "Five Leaves," Akitsu is torn between his honor as a samurai, his dire need for a job, and his fascination with the outlaws.

TRIBE GIVES $2,427 TO VCO

Victory Cherokee Organization officers, board members and members attending the monthly business meeting gathered with District 14 Councilman Lee Keener, District 13 Councilman-Elect Buel Anglen and former District 13 Councilwoman Cara Cowan Watts to celebrate a donation to the group.
