Owasso Library features Homework Help Now in August

School has started, and homework will soon follow.

Remember you can access free online homework assistance from your home, school or library with your valid TCCL library card. Homework Help Now offers live tutoring, available 2-11 p.m. Get expert one-to-one subject-specific help for students in grades K-12, plus college.

Spanish-speaking tutors are available too! At the Test Center, you can take practice quizzes in standardized tests (SAT, ACT, GED and more) and practice subject-specific tests, like math and science, and receive instant results.

Use the Writing Lab to connect with an online tutor for expert writing assistance, or for a more thorough analysis, submit your writing and receive within approximately 24 hours a detailed analysis of your paper. If you need help before or after hours, you can submit a question to the 24/7 Help Center and a tutor will provide you with a response (usually within 24 hours).

All of these services are also available through the free Brainfuse App, available in the App Store or Google Play. Visit www.tulsalibrary.org/homeworkhelp and use your Tulsa City-County Library card to access Homework Help Now.

New fall program: After-School Homework Cub Education Activity Center

The Owasso Library will soon be an After-School Homework Club Education Activity Center site and we are looking for a motivated, creative person interested in engaging with children in grades 3-8 with a focus on positive, education-based activities. This is a paid, part-time position working about 13 hours a week throughout the school year.

Education Activity Center Facilitators design activities for and oversee the operation of their assigned After-School Homework Club Education Activity Center, providing students with stimulating enrichment activities. EAC Facilitators create and adapt STE(A)Mfocused academic learning activities for registered participating students. For more information or to apply go to careers.tulsalibrary.org.

We also are looking for anyone interested in volunteering to help with this program. You can find more information at guides.tulsalibrary.org/homeworkclub. The program will start Sept. 14 and will be from 3:30-5:30 p.m. Monday-Friday throughout the school year. Pre-registration is required for students to participate. Registration starts in September.

Upcoming August events

Don't miss Purple Honey, a free old-fashioned outdoor concert featuring Janet Rutland, Shelby Eicher, Rick Bentley and Terry Bentley, inspired by Sue Monk Kidd's novel The Secret Life of Bees. The show is at 7 p.m. Friday, Aug. 21, on the Guthrie Green, in Tulsa. It's presented by Tulsa Town Hall and the Oklahoma Center for Poets and Writers at OSU Tulsa.

Sue Monk Kidd opens the 2015-16 season of Tulsa Town Hall Oct. 2. Check the Oklahoma Center for Poets and Writers website for more information about related events.

Sharon Draper will accept the 2015 Tulsa Library Trust's Anne V. Zarrow Award for Young Readers' Literature at 7 p.m. Friday, Aug. 28, at the Hardesty Regional Library. Draper has written many books for children and young adults, and is best known for her 2010 novel Out of My Mind, told from the point of view of a severely physically disabled girl. Parents and children are invited to attend this free event to hear Draper speak about her life and work.

Don't forget, the Owasso Library will be closed during the week of Aug. 24-29 for a small remodel. You can still return books in the book drop and pick up your requested items in the meeting room Monday-Friday 11-6. We look forward to seeing you at the library when we re-open Aug. 31.
