News from the library

FROM STAFF REPORTS

As the Summer Reading Program winds down, and school days just around the corner, we would like to remind everyone that you have until August 17th, 2015 to finish up and receive your prizes/coupons. Adults who have read four books, Teens/Tweens who have read six books, and Children who have finished reading twenty books will qualify for their final prizes and be entered into grand prize drawings. So, you still have time to finish!

If you haven't been in lately, stop by and check out our new self-check machine. It's pretty fancy, but very user friendly. We appreciate your patience as we acquire new technologies and hope that you take comfort in knowing that we will do our best to help you use the tools available to you here at the library.

Not all improvements at the library are technology driven, as evidenced by the picture of the pergola provided with this article. Our master carpenter spent several hot days completing this beautiful addition to the outdoor patio space available to all customers. When the weather cools down we anticipate having story times on the patio, under the shade of this lovely structure.

And speaking of story time, we would like to remind story time visitors that we are taking the month of August off to regroup for the fall. PAWS for reading will still take place on Thursdays from 3:30-4:30pm and Saturdays (except 2nd Saturday) from Noon-1:00pm. Hope to see you soon.

HEAT ADVISORY!

Annuity rates so hot they should come with a warning!
