The Tulsa City-County Library will celebrate the world of "Doctor Who" with a free family event 1:30-3:30 p.m. Saturday at Hardesty Regional Library, 8316 E. 93rd St.

The event will include family games, a chance to test your Whovian knowledge, photo-ops with reenactors from the group "Tulsa Star Force," a life-size Tardis and cardboard standups of the latest Doctor Who and current villains, according to a news release.

Fans of the sci-fi TV show also can choose a character from any season of the series, from a Dalek to the Doctor, and compete in a costume contest. Themed prizes will be awarded for first-, second- and third-place winners in the categories of ages 15 and younger and 16 and older.

"Doctor Who" materials such as books, complete season series, audiobooks and original soundtracks will be on display and available for library patrons to check out.

"This celebration is all about the great sci-fi
