There's still time for summer reading prizes

The deadline for completing the Summer Reading program has been extended to mid-August.

Children, teens and adults still have time to complete the 2015 Summer Reading Program and receive their prizes.

Visit any Tulsa City-County Library to collect your prizes. Infants through fifth grade can register online at www.TulsaLibrary.org/summer.

Children who have read or listened to eight books will receive a medal and coupons for food and entertainment. Medal winners who have completed kindergarten or are in the first through fifth grade may enter the drawing for grand prizes.

Children who have read or listened to 12 additional books will receive a bonus prize; a superhero duck toy.

Kids who are at least five years old and have four Library Visit stickers on their logs will be allowed to enter their names in a drawing for a pair of free Mega Ride Passes to the Tulsa State Fair.

A winner will be chosen from each Tulsa City-County Library branch.

Teens and tweens who have read or listened to six books will earn a flashlight and coupons for free entertainment and food items.
