

LINDSEY RENUARD/SKIATOOK JOURNAL

Kids make dalmations with fire hats.

LINDSEY RENUARD/SKIATOOK JOURNAL

Kids played games at Everyday Heroes

LINDSEY RENUARD/SKIATOOK JOURNAL

Ernestine "ET" Turewell from the Osage County Sheriff's Office spoke to the kids.

Everyday Heroes at Skiatook Library

By Lindsey Renuard
News Editor
lindsey.renuard@skiatookjournal.com

The Skiatook Public

Library held Everyday Heroes July 13.

Everyday Heroes focused on people in our community who are there to serve and help every day. Skiatook VFW Post Commander Larry Hill spoke to the kids about veterans. Ernestine "ET" Turewell from the Osage County Sheriff's Office spoke about the importance of trusting police when you need help.

Kids played games, made crafts, and won prizes including DVDs, pins, comic books, and candy.

This event was part of the Summer Children's Reading Program.

Women's Clothing
Accessories & Gifts
Gourmet Food

Makeup applications available by appointment

303 E Rogers Blvd
918.578.5100
rubiesandrouge@gmail.com

Tue-Fri 11-6
Thu 11-7
Sat 10-5

JC & Son

New SPECIAL INTRODUCTORY PRICING

WASTE MANAGEMENT

for Residents North of Hwy. 20 and East of Hwy. 11!

CALL NOW 918-263-2624
LIMITED TIME OFFER