The Tulsa City-County Library has a long list of events planned for this summer. From activities and story time for the little ones to book clubs and discussions for adults, there is something for everyone at both Broken Arrow locations.

The library is currently offering Summer Reading Programs at the elementary, teen, and adult level. Completion of the program (which runs through August 1) will earn readers restaurant coupons as well as tickets to Tulsa Drillers, Roughnecks, and Shock sporting events. Participants will be entered for a chance to win bigger prizes as well, including gift cards, an Xbox 360, and Kindle tablet to name a few.

For the younger crowd, the library hosts themed story time every Wednesday in July for the 0-2 and 2-3 year old age groups. Every Tuesday in July, there will be a Superhero-themed story time for ages 2-6 including crafts and activities.

There will be events featuring special guests as well, including American Indian Dances and Storytelling hosted by Mike and Lisa Pahsetopah on Thursday, July 9 from 2-3 p.m. and a Superhero Science Show hosted by Magician Brad "Bradini" Evans on Thursday, July 23 from 2-3 p.m. All ages are welcome to both events.

Other events for kids ages 5-12 include a Lego Build-Off Competition (registration is required; go online for details), a Tulsa Children's Museum Bubble Art activity July 14th from 1-1:50 p.m., a Superhero Book Club July 21 from 2-3 p.m. and Make Your Own Comics Workshop July 28 from 2-3 p.m.

Special events geared toward teens include a meeting of In The Middle Book Group (discussion of "Out of My Mind" by Sharon Draper, door prizes, and light refreshments) Monday, July 20 from 6:30-7:30, for ages 9-12 p.m. Fandom Friday Festivity will be held Friday, July 31 from 3-4:30 p.m., an opportunity to celebrate and dress up as a favorite book, movie, or TV character with trivia, door prizes, and snacks. Recommended for ages 10-18.

The "Make a Zine" program will be held on July 30 from 2-3 p.m. for grades 6-12. Here teens will have the chance to submit their writing, artwork, or photography to be published in the Broken Arrow Teen Library Zine which will be published later this summer.

The library will be partnering with the Rose District's Movies in the Park for a presentation of the movie Paddington on July 2.

The library has recently welcomed new resources for all library card holders including access to the Sony catalogue for music and movie streaming, as well as access to e-books and magazines from home devices.

"These new modern services have attracted a lot of people who wouldn't normally visit the library," Broken Arrow Library customer service assistant Kelly Waters says. "I feel like a salesman sometimes, telling people about all of these things we have going on!"

A complete list of all events and programs is available at any of the Tulsa City-County Library locations. For questions or information, visit tulsalibrary.org or call 918-549-READ.

Are you or your loved one facing the challenge of terminal or life limiting illness, such as Cancer, Heart Disease, Lung Disease, Alzheimer's, Stroke?

Hospice is a philosophy that focuses on caring, not curing. When medical science has done all it can to cure an illness or disease, hospice offers an alternative – comfort, compassion and dignity. Our caregivers truly have the heart to provide excellent assistance to patients and their families.
