

Library seeking summer volunteers

April 16, 2015

Teens who love libraries, books and technology are encouraged to volunteer at their local library as a member of the Teen Team.

Tulsa City-County Library is currently accepting applications for Teen Team volunteers for the summer. Applicants must be 13-15 years old and capable of volunteering several hours a week at a community library. Duties include assisting librarians with activities associated with the children's reading program.

Interested teens should return their applications to the branch where they would like to volunteer. The library will schedule an interview, determine a convenient schedule and set a time for training. Applications are available at each TCCL location or by downloading from <http://teens.tulsalibrary.org/tccl/teen>

All volunteers receive an official 2015 Teen Team T-shirt to wear during their shift, as well as a certificate of achievement from TCCL's CEO at the end of the summer.

Teen Team is perfect for those who enjoy libraries and are looking to gain work experience, develop new skills and meet people of all ages. Over the years, Tulsa City-County Library has hired many Teen Team members once they are in high school.

During the 2014 summer, nearly 400 teens volunteered more than 12,000 hours and helped m children's summer reading program a success. For more information, call t 918-549-7323.

News | News Briefs

« Transit assistance for local veterans - Deputy charged with manslaughter »

© 2014 Tulsa Beacon