This month's featured service is Freegal Music Services. Use your Tulsa City-County Library card to download up to five free songs a week and stream unlimited music from the Freegal collection 24/7. You can download the Freegal app for your phone or tablet or use your computer. Top artists available this week include Miranda Lambert, Kelly Clarkson, Meghan Trainor and Hozier. Choose from millions of songs and more than 10,000 music labels, including Sony Music. You can keep songs forever. Access Freegal Music at www.tulsalibrary.org/music.

The Institute of Museum and Library Services, a federal department, announced Tuesday, Feb. 24, Tulsa City-County Library is among 30 finalists for the 2015 National Medal for Museum and Library Service. The National Medal is the nation's highest honor given to museums and libraries for service to the community. For 21 years, the award has celebrated institutions that demonstrate extraordinary and innovative approaches to public service to make a difference for individuals, families and communities. IMLS is the primary source of federal support for the nation's 123,000 libraries and 35,000 museums. "Museums and libraries are the lifeblood of our communities, serving as trusted providers of critical resources, educational training, skills development, and civic and cultural enrichment," said Maura Marx.
