FROM THE LIBRARY

Library offers free streaming music with no commercials

By Michelle Beckes
Manager, Skiatook Library

We are happy to announce that the Tulsa City-County Library now offers free streaming music.

And the best part is, there are no commercials.

So, if you happen to use other streaming services and don't want to pay a fee just to not have to hear commercials, you can give Freegal music streaming a try.

As with all the services we offer, you can find the information on the homepage at www.tulsalibrary.org. Just look for the "download music and stream movies" tab and click on it. You will need a library card from TCCL to gain access to the database, even when using the free app on your smart phone.

Freegal still offers the five free downloads per week, but the addition of streaming music offers users a choice and it's all free for you to use.

This service offers more than 7 million songs, from more than 10,000 labels. If you have questions about this, or any other service we offer, please stop by or call (918) 549-7323 for assistance.

Upcoming events at the Skiatook library include:

- Paws for Reading on Saturdays from 12-1 p.m. Read with Fredricka the Corgi and receive a free book. This activity is for children, ages 3-12 yrs. Seating is limited.
- Paws for Reading on Thursdays from 10-11 a.m. Read with Miss Marlie the Chihuahua and receive a free book. This activity is for ages 3-12 yrs. Seating is limited.

Preschool Story Time on Thursday from 11 a.m. until Noon. There will be stories, songs, rhymes and a craft. This activity is for ages 0-6yrs.
