LIBRARY CORNER

Summer Reading Program ends this week

By Jennifer McQuade
 Youth Librarian

This is the last week to participate in the Summer Reading Program at the library.

The Owasso Library has already signed up more than 2,700 kids and more than 1,400 of them have completed the program and received their medals. After the program ends Aug. 2, we will not sign up any new participants, but we will still be handing out medals, coupons and prizes throughout the month of August for kids who have finished reading all their books.

Are you looking for something free for the family to do this weekend?

Come out to the Martin Library at 21st and Garnett in Tulsa Saturday Aug. 2 for Touch-a-Truck: Planes, Trains and Automobiles. This exciting event features a helicopter, an airplane, a fire truck, giveaways and T-shirts, popcorn, live music and more.

This free event will be at 10 a.m. and ends around 12:30 p.m. Plan an entire day of fun Saturday and use your coupons for free admission to Library Summer Reading nights at ONEOK Field with the Tulsa Drillers at 7 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 2.

The Owasso Library will be taking a programming break during the month of August. We will not have any storytimes in August. They will resume Tuesday, Sept. 2. New E-Books at the Owasso Library

The Farm by Tom Rob Smith

Daniel believes his parents are happily retired on a farm in Sweden until he receives a phone call from his father stating that his mother has been committed to a mental institution. As Daniel is leaving for the airport to go see his mother, she calls him and says she has witnessed a horrific crime. She accuses his father of being involved in a conspiracy to cover up the crime. As she tells her story, Daniel doesn't know who to believe, and the stakes are high in this fast-paced, psychological thriller. Available for download on your computer, phone or e-reader device.
