ERRIKKA BRANSCUM/OWASSO REPORTER
Kim Dorrrough listens to Carina Whiting, 6, read to Ellie, a therapy dog.

The Owasso Public Library held the monthly event, PAWS for reading Thursday, June 12.

This event brings in registered therapy dogs to be read to by children ages 5-10.

Therapy dogs are known for excellent behavior and listening skills, therefore are ideal for this event.

Students bring in their favorite book, sit with a dog and read to them.

This is a great way for students to practice reading, without the pressure of reading to an adult, organizers said. Each student that participates in this event receives a free book provided by the Tulsa Library Trust.
