The Tulsa City-County Library's first Digital Festival is set for 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday.

The event will be held at the Librarium, 1110 S. Denver Ave.

The day will include demonstrations of how to access digital materials through the library. Families can sign up for library cards, enjoy children's games and face painting, and cool off inside the Librarium with a variety of family-friendly movies.

The library's newest outreach vehicle will also be showcased. The mobile collection features about 1,000 items for all ages, as well as WiFi for digital downloads.

A naming contest for the new vehicle runs through June 16. To enter the contest, complete an entry form and drop it in the designated box at any Tulsa City-County Library branch or submit the entry online.

Visit tulsalibrary.org/namethevehicle for the official rules and guidelines for the contest.

The event will also include three performances by the Edison Dance Company, at 11:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m.

The Mazzio's food truck will be selling slices of pizza and drinks for $1 each.

For more, call 918-549-7323 or visit tulsalibrary.org.
