Alisha Gaddis-Diaz and Lucky Diaz perform at the Owasso Public Library. Lucky Diaz played children's songs and got the children in attendance to move to the music during their performance Monday, June 9.

I am a Tulsa native, but the city is growing quickly. Services I need are moving south, where traffic is thick and fast. At Saint Simeon's, I enjoy a stress-free life — time in the gardens, watching wildlife, and admiring beautiful flowers. I also love the regular chapel services and my favorite spot on campus — the warm-water therapy pool. Thanks to Saint Simeon's, my family and I have gained something priceless — peace of mind.
