The Collinsville High School academic team had a great year. The team has nine members — six freshman, one sophomore and two juniors — officially making them a Junior Varsity team, but they competed as a varsity team all year, prior to nationals.

The team recently returned from the Junior Varsity Nationals in New Orleans where they finished third in the nation.

During the regular season (August-November) they competed in the Green Country Academic Conference with a record of 17 wins and two losses.

In the OSSAA playoffs they finished fourth in their area. At the Oklahoma Science Bowl they finished fourth in the state.

In addition to the team competitions, these students competed individually in the Oklahoma Tournament of Champions. In the first round, the nine students took 28 subject tests and seven of nine qualified for the second round. The second round championship tournament was in Oklahoma City with 500 students from 57 school districts competing.

Rachel Hadley was 15th in the state in Geometry; Erik Tollefson was 15th in the state in U.S. Government; Sydney Vogel was 12th in the state in Geometry; Lyndee Branan was 10th in the state in Geometry; Cannon Vogel was seventh in the state in U.S. Government; Daniel Wilson was fifth in the state in English I; Cannon Vogel was fourth in the state in English III; Cannon Vogel was third in the state in U.S. History and Cannon Vogel was state champion in both Algebra II and Trigonometry.

The team is coached by CHS Librarian Lynn Gowler.

Friends, family and well-wishers gathered at Collinsville Library recently for a reception to say goodbye to one of the local institution's favorite workers. Diane Schultz have moved to Fort Dodge, Iowa to be with Diane's mother-in-law and help with her care.

It was 1999 when the Schultzes moved to Collinsville and Diane, who had experience with school libraries found the Collinsville Library in a little store

"When Susan (Dr. Babbitt, recently retired as Collinsville Library manager) came, we were always doing something to bring the library into the limelight. There was the turn of the century party, the mystery dinner . . . it would all seem at first to be so much work but it ended up being so much fun. Everyone seemed to enjoy what we were doing at the library and we got great feedback from the community.

"Meeting the people, getting to know the customers and watching their kids group up, it was a real family atmosphere." Diane said
