School is out, and teenagers will be looking for fun and interesting things to do.

Area libraries are offering programs and events suitable for teens, from manga and anime to how to use a sewing machine.

Here are some offerings for June.

1. Using a Sewing Machine

Glenpool Library, 730 E. 141st St., 918-549-7535

1-4 p.m. June 14

If you have a sewing machine around the house and don't know quite what to do with it, this class is for you. Instructors will show the basics of sewing, how to wind a bobbin, thread the machine and basic machine care and maintenance. Attendees will learn basic stitches, how to get started on their first projects and how to pursue their own sewing projects. Bring your own sewing machine. For teens and adults.

2. Our Cosmic Neighborhood

Broken Arrow Library

300 W. Broadway St., 918-549-7500

Participants in a June 14 class at Glenpool Library will learn the basics of using a sewing machine. CORY YOUNG/Tulsa World file
