TULSA — Celebrate and learn about the customs and traditions of Asian-Americans with entertaining, educational events for the entire family as the Tulsa City-County Library presents the 12th annual Asian-American Festival from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday, June 7 at the Martin Regional Library, 2601 S. Garnett Road. Explore the colorful cultures of Burma, China, India, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, the Philippines, Vietnam and other countries in Asia. The festival is sponsored and funded by the Tulsa Library Trust. Admission to the festival is free.

The festival features martial arts demonstrations; a Japanese tea ceremony; traditional dance and drumming; authentic arts and crafts booths; interactive educational booths featuring hands-on crafts and activities for kids; an exhibition of children's artwork from Kyoto, Japan, provided by the Oklahoma Secretary of State; a cosplay contest with free passes to Tokyo in Tulsa as prizes, and a traditional dress contest with a gift card to India Palace as top prize; plus a food concession with traditional Asian cuisine provided by India Palace and Lone Wolf food truck.

Commemorative Asian-

American Festival T-shirts will be on sale for $10. Also, Midfirst Bank will provide a mobile ATM/fundraising van that accepts loose change as donations to the library. Midfirst will match the first $500 in donations.

Visit <http://TulsaLibrary.org/asianfestival> for participating groups and schedule of presentations, or call (918) 549-7323 for more information about the Asian-American Festival.
