in the library parking lot so that families with kids could see them up close. Children touched, explored and sat in the driver's seat of the trucks they see each day on city streets.

"Our first Touch-A-Truck event was a huge success, with more than 1,200 people attending," said Youth Librarian Jennifer McQuade.

Hats, tote bags, bubbles and toy gliders were given away to children.

"The library's role in our community is climb up into the seat and talk to the men."

The library was able to hand out hundreds of Summer Reading Program event guides with information about the free events, storytimes and performances at the library this summer for kids of all ages.

"We hope to make Touch-A-Truck an annual event to kick off our summer programming," she said.

The Summer Reading Program will begin Tuesday, May 27.
