

Tulsa City-County Library Muscogee (Creek) Nation Principal Chief George Tiger; Teresa Runnels, Tulsa City-County Library's American Indian Resource Center coordinator; Ruthe Blalock Jones, 2014 Circle of Honor Award recipient; and Gary Shaffer, Tulsa City-County Library CEO, gathered March 1 to induct Jones into the library's Circle of Honor. Jones' award presentation marked the start of a month-long American Indian Festival of Words celebration honoring the achievements and accomplishments of Native Americans.

Carnivale25 Mental Health Association Oklahoma, formerly known as Mental Health Association in Tulsa, celebrated Carnivale25 on April 5. The 25th annual gala, which raised $1,252,263, honored Carnivale founder Suzanne Warren and also recognized the 20th anniversary of Michael W. Brose becoming executive director of the statewide organization. Pictured at the event are Monica Basu, Carnivale25 chairwoman; Judy Kishner, Zarrow Families Foundation; and Michael Brose and Suzanne Warren.

PALMER

Treating Addiction. Healing Lives.

IS PROUD TO PRESENT

AN EVENING
WITH THE

Pioneer
WOMAN

