LIBRARY CORNER

Owasso Library to hold Touch-a-Truck event Thursday, May 1

By Barbara Barnes
Branch Manager
Owasso Library

Gideon O'Riley returns to his wife, but finds her engaged to another man. Will God bring them back together, or does He have other plans?

Mark your calendars for Thursday, May 1, from 5-7 p.m.

We're having "Touch-a-Truck" in our parking lot. Children, and adults, can explore and discover dozens of big trucks they see each day on our city streets, from bookmobiles to backhoes. This is for all ages. It's sponsored by the Flint Family Foundation.

Tuesday, May 6, from 2-3 p.m. will be our last homeschool storytime until September. We encourage our homeschoolers to attend our special events in conjunction with the Summer Reading Program which starts Tuesday, May 27.

Once again it's time to put those creative minds to work and write a poem, short story, essay, short play, and/or new this year, a graphic short story.

The 2014 Young People's Creative Writing Contest runs from May 1 through June 5 and is for ages 10-18. Entry forms are available at all library locations or you can enter at teens.tulsalibrary.org/ypcwc.

Master Class by Peter Spiers offers advice on living longer, stronger and happier.

YOUNG ADULT FICTION
Tommy Stands Tall by Gloria L. Velasquez — a senior now at Roosevelt High School, Tommy learns that a new student is beaten badly amid rumors that he is gay, so Tommy helps form a Gay Straight Alliance Club to raise awareness and seek equality for gay students.

TWEEN FICTION
The Riverman by Aaron Starmer — this is the first book in a trilogy about a girl who claims she is visiting a parallel universe where a nefarious being called The Riverman is stealing the souls of children and the boy she asks to write her biography because she fears her soul may be next.

JUVENILE FICTION
Daisy's Big Night by Sandra V. Feder — Daisy loves words more than anything, but how can she turn that into a talent for the Student Showcase?

Family Fun Fair returns to Owasso May 3

From Staff Reports
news@owassoreporter.com

The semi-annual Owasso Family Fun Fair is back again from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, May 3, for a free, family-friendly event that brings together local merchants, neighbors, families and friends for four hours of fun.

Hundreds of community members will gather at Rayola Park to learn more about the different activities, businesses and organizations available in their community, as well as entertain the whole family with any of the free fun-filled activities offered at the event.

Those events include bounce houses, face painting, obstacle courses, live music, dance performances, karate performances, story-time, crafts, soccer drills and much more.

As a small business owner himself, Amberg realized the importance of community networking and was inspired to launch the event in order to let community members know about all the wonderful opportunities available to them right in their own backyards.

The structure of the event is set up so each vendor provides a child-friendly activity and an optional raffle prize.

While parents learn about the local merchant or organization, children have fun engaging in fun activities like sports obstacle courses, games and crafts.

Raffle prizes are given away every 20 minutes throughout the duration of the fair, making each child's chances of winning a prize a good bet.

Vendor booths are available until April 28. Please contact Michael Amberg at michaelamberg2001@gmail.com to sign up for your free vendor booth and let him know what children's activity you will offer.

There is no entrance fee or tickets, and all activities at the Owasso Family Fun Fair are completely free. For more information about the Owasso Family Fun Fair, visit the Owasso Family Fun Fair Facebook page or contact Michael Amberg at michaelamberg2001@gmail.com.
