Teen Team volunteers are being recruited. Team Teamers assist librarians with the Tulsa City-County Library activities during the annual library Summer Reading Program. Applicants must be 13-15 years old, and may register online or in person at the local library. The web address for online registration is:

Additionally, the Young People's Creative Writing Contest is just around the corner. This contest is for ages 10-18. Entries are accepted May 1-June 5. Enter online, starting May 1, at <http://teens.tulsalibrary.org/ypcwc>.

The "Be the Hero" program featuring Matthew C. Winner will be held on Wednesday, April 16 from 4:30 to 6 p.m. at Hardesty Required.

Matthew C. Winner explores how to engage students through the use of video games and game-based learning. He is the co-author of "Teach Math with the Wii: Engage Your K-7 Students Through Gaming Technology."

April is also Autism Awareness Month. The Skiatook Library has books and other resources on this important subject.

Sensory Story Time is an interactive and educational program that can be enjoyed by all children, but is especially designed for children with sensory integration challenges. It combines books, songs, movement, and therapeutic activities to stimulate all five senses and promote learning.

Who can attend? Any child ages 1 to 7 years old can attend with a parent/caregiver. Pre-registration is required. Please pickup an event guide at the library or check out the link on Libraries stand as a beacon of knowledge in a community — an unwavering resource to any person who enters the book-filled stacks.

To recognize the library's importance in the community, Tulsa City-County Library presents "Lives Change @ Your Library," during National Library Week, April 13-19.

The weeklong celebration highlights ways libraries can benefit all citizens. Tulsa City-County Library features more than 1.5 million items to choose from. Enjoy books for children, tweens, teens and adults.

Customers also can enjoy Wi-Fi, computers, copiers, printers, fax service and business databases. Ask a librarian about meeting rooms, study areas and other gathering places for individuals, small groups and larger events for nonprofits or small

Another thought living alone was "just fine." But the activities and great friends she's made at Saint Simeon's have made her much more active, healthy, and happy. She really enjoys art classes, luncheon outings, sing-a-longs, entertainment, walks with her friend Norma, and of course, Bingo. I'm so grateful for the wellness classes and physical therapists, who have helped her through two injuries that would have prevented her from walking.

 Sincerely, Priscilla
