ANNIVERSARY

Michael and Geraldine Eschbach to celebrate 60 years

MICHAEL, GERALDINE ESCHBACH

From Staff Reports
news@skiatookjournal.com

A 60th wedding anniversary celebration is scheduled from 2-4 p.m. Sunday, March 2. The event will be an Open House at the Red Barn Event Center. No gifts, please.

Directions from Skiatook are to drive east on State Highway 20 to Collinsville, turn north on U.S. 169, cross the Caney River bridges, turn right onto 4050 Road and then make a left a short distance later onto 430 Road. From there, drive about 1.5 miles and make a right onto 4065 Road. Follow 4065 Road to the Red Barn Event Center.

The Eschbachs have two sons, Joe and Tom; five grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. Michael Eschbach worked for Rockwell from the beginning of the space program through the Shuttle era. The family formerly had a dairy, and they now run stock cattle.

Skiatook Library has exciting gardening information for you

By Linda Wallace
Skiatook Library

March is fast approaching; will it come in as a lion or lamb?

At Skiatook library we are hoping for an early spring. As you plan for your vegetable or flower gardens, think of us, because we have the information that you need.

In addition to many books and pamphlets about gardening, you may take adult education courses at no cost, from our Universal Class database. You may take up to five courses with six months to complete each course.

Here are four good examples: Landscaping 101, Introduction to Gardening, All About Herbs, and Vegetable Gardening 101.

With your TCCL library card, you may enroll and complete them on any internet connected computer. If you do not have internet access come by and use our computers.

You may register for Universal Classes at: <http://tulsacitycountyok.universalclass.com/register.htm>.

More Skiatook Library schedule information:
