Hometown Hero nominations sought

From Leader Reports
news@sand SpringsLeader.com

The City of Sand Springs is currently accepting nominations for this year's Hometown Hero to be recognized at the 25th Annual Herbal Affair & Festival on Saturday, April 26.

To nominate someone for Hometown Hero, email your answers to the following questions to mkcarlson@sand Springsok.org no later than Friday, March 1.

* How long have you known the person you are nominating?

* What is your relationship to the nominee?

* In your own words, why does your nominee deserve recognition as Hometown Hero?

* Have your nominee's efforts made a difference for the Sand Springs Community? If so, how?

* Is there anything else that makes your nominee exceptional or unique?

The Nomination Committee will review all nominations and will contact you if your nominee is chosen. All nominations will be kept confidential and only the Hometown Hero chosen will be announced at Herbal Affair.

For more information, contact Melissa Carlson, Marketing Manager, City of Sand Springs, at mkcarlson@sand Springsok.org or 918-246-2500 x 2504.

Library to host art festival

From Leader Reports
news@sand SpringsLeader.com

Barbie King of Tulsa Tech Center, formerly the art teacher at Charles Page High School, will be the instructor for a special program at Pratt Library.

The program, "Making Mosaics: an American Indian Festival of Words," will be held Saturday, Feb. 1 at 1 p.m. at the library, located at 3219 S. 113th W. Ave.

King will tell the children about Ruthe Blalock Jones, the Tulsa City-County Library's American Indian Resource Center's special Circle of Honor winner.

King will show some of the artist's artwork, then will help the children make mosaics in that style.

All completed works will be on display at the Circle of Honor awards ceremony in March.

Children ages 5 to 11 are encouraged to participate. Registration is required. Call 918-549-7638 to register.

Make a difference.
