We welcome Kazuo Ishiguro to Tulsa, where he will receive the Peggy V. Helmerich Distinguished Author Award from the Tulsa Library Trust Friday night.

Ishiguro — who won the Man Booker Prize for his book “The Remains of the Day” — will deliver a free public lecture at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Hardesty Regional Library, 8316 E. 93rd St.

Ishiguro’s body of work well justifies the many awards he has received, and we’re honored to have him visit our community.

Let us also pause to praise Peggy Helmerich and her family, whose longtime patronage of the library system and the award, has put Tulsa on the literary map.
