Tulsa Camerata evening to feature pair of quintets

The Tulsa Camerata gets romantic for its concert at 7 p.m. Thursday at the Philbrook Museum of Art, 2727 S. Rockford Road.

A pair of quintets make up the evening. The Clarinet Quintet in F-sharp Minor, Op. 10, by Samuel Coleridge-Taylor, will feature clarinetist David Carter with violinists Laura Talbott and Liza Villarreal, violist Phil Wachowski and cellist Meredith Blecha-Wells.

The String Quintet in A Major is an arrangement of Beethoven's well-known "Kreutzer" Sonata, though who created the arrangement Beethoven or someone else is something of a mystery. Cellist

Krassimira Figg will join the other string players for this piece.

The two works share another connection: Coleridge-Taylor, the son of English and African parents, was called "the African Mahler" by some critics, and the Kreutzer Sonata was originally written for the African violinist George Bridgetower.

'Tulsa! Radio Christmas Spectacular' on the way

It's December 1949. Christmas is close at hand as are the metaphorical wolves that are seeking to shut down radio station KMOK. What the station needs is a Christmas miracle, which takes the form of a spectacular holiday production, complete with an almost famous Broadway star. What could possibly go wrong?

The Playhouse Tulsa is premiering an original comedy, "Tulsa! A Radio Christmas Spectacular," at 7:30 p.m. Thursday-Friday, at 2 and 7:30 p.m. Saturday and at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Tulsa PAC, 110 E. Second St. Tickets: 918-596-7111, myticketoffice.com
