Library offers children's programs

By Linda Wallace
Children's Library Associate

The Skiatook Library is featuring children's programs this week.

We are inviting the 0-6-year-olds for Preschool Story Time each Thursday at 11 a.m.

"Turkey Time" is the theme for Nov. 14, with stories, creative movement, songs and a craft. So grab a little one and come see us.

Paws for Reading continues every Saturday from 3-4 p.m. Kids 3-12 years old are invited to read their favorite books to Fredricka the corgi. Each reader will receive a free book provided by the Tulsa Library Trust.

Reservations may be made on the same day as the program by calling (918) 549-7676.

From Staff Reports

news@skiatookjournal.com

The Skiatook High School Class of 1973 is having its 40th Class Reunion at 5 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 30, at MAD's LOTAROC Ranch.

Directions from Skiatook

Go north on SH 11 from the SH 11/SH 20 intersection for 17.6 miles

Follow the signs and turn left on Lotaroc Road

Our very casual get-together will include a light meal. Classmates, teachers, and faculty members are invited and may bring one guest. The cost is $10 per person, payable at the door.

Please call Donna (Wadsworth) Hulseley at (918) 698-5025 or Judy (Berkensbile) Waken at (918) 813-1080 to RSVP, or if you have any questions. We have a Facebook event page titled Skiatook High School Class of 1973 40th Class Reunion. Help us pass on this information.

John's Drug to close Nov. 15

From Staff Reports

news@skiatookjournal.com

With mixed emotions we wish to announce John's Drug store will be closing its doors Friday, Nov. 15. John and Darlene Thomason and family want to thank their customers for 50 years of patronage. Customer files will be at Kendall's Pharmacy after that.

An article about John will follow and a date will be announced about a celebration. God bless each and every one of you.
