Artist Ben Hatke, author of the graphic novels featuring Zita the Spacegirl, will be the guest of the Tulsa City-County Library's 2013 Anime Minicon, being held 1 to 4 p.m. Saturday at the Hardesty Regional Library, 8316 E. 93rd St.

The minicon is part of the library's Teen Read Month.

Hatke created the character of Zita, an ordinary girl who becomes an intergalactic hero, for the anthology "Flight Explorer." When that publication folded, Hatke began working on standalone adventures.

The third novel in the series is due out later this year.

Hatke will give a talk about his work, take part in a Q&A and sign copies of his books.

In addition to Hatke's presentation, the afternoon will include a cosplay costume contest, a candy sushi workshop, anime trivia contest, demonstrations of martial arts and other activities.

For more information, call 918-549-7323, or go to teens. tulsalibrary.org
