Skiatook Journal 13

FROM THE LIBRARY

'Novelist' available; Sperry event to focus on insurance marketplace

By Michelle Beckes, Skiatook branch manager

We hope the cooler weather is a relief to most of you, unless you prefer warmer temperatures. The staff here at the Skiatook Library finds that cooler temperatures give us a good excuse to stay inside and curl up with a good book. Sometimes we meet people who say "I've read this book before. Is there a way that I can find a similar author?" The answer is yes. On our website, www.tulsalibrary.org, under the Explore heading you will find a link to a database called NoveList. It's as easy as typing in an author name or book title and the database will pull up a list of read-alikes and/or similar authors. Of course, you can always stop by the library and have us help you with this process.

Another way we would like to offer help is to promote an upcoming event that will be held at our neighboring library in Sperry, the Judy Kishner library, on Oct. 12, 2013 at 2 p.m. This is a short description of the discussion topic: The Affordable Care Act's Insurance Marketplace will have open enrollment from Oct. 1, 2013 to March 31, 2014. Many people may find affordable health insurance from the bronze, silver, gold and platinum plans available. Jan Figart, Associate Director from Community Service Council, will provide information on the Affordable Care Act and the insurance marketplace.

We hope that the services we offer continue to help everyone in the Skiatook area find the information they need. If you have a suggestion or a comment please feel free to contact us at (918) 549-7676.
