

Noteworthy

EVENTS TO INSPIRE, EDUCATE AND MOTIVATE!

RAISING MONEY FOR ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE

On Thursday, June 6, Senior Star at Burgundy Place is hosting a fundraiser for The Alzheimer's Association. Making Moments will be held at 7 p.m. at Cain's Ballroom, 423 N. Main St., Tulsa. The event includes live music, hors d'oeuvres, raffle, wine pull and cash bar.

Entertainment for Making Moments features Oklahoma's own John Fulbright, a Grammy-nominated singer/songwriter from Okemah. His first studio album was released in 2012 and garnered extensive critical acclaim. The Wall Street Journal even proclaimed his concerts to be among the year's 10 best live performances. His powerful voice carries an "old soul" quality that really connects with audiences.

All seats are reserved, and ticket prices are $50. If you're already booked for June 6, but want to support the cause, tickets may be purchased and donated back to the event organizers. They will arrange to get the ticket to someone caring for a loved one with Alzheimer's who would really appreciate a "moment" of respite and fun. All money raised will be donated to the Alzheimer's Association. For more information, call Senior Star at Burgundy Place at (918) 299-0953 and ask for Leatha or Shondel.

INTERFAITH HOLOCAUST COMMEMORATION

When WWII ended in 1945, 6 million European Jews were dead, including more than 1 million children. Yet during this time of unspeakable atrocity, there were acts of kindness and heroism. Thousands of Jewish children survived because friends, family, neighbors and strangers hid or disguised them. Abraham H. Foxman was among these child survivors and on Monday, May 6, he will share his story as the featured speaker for the Tulsa Council for Holocaust Education and Tulsa City-County Library's 22nd Annual Yom HaShoah/Interfaith Holocaust Commemoration.

Foxman's presentation "Survival in the Shadows: Hidden Children of the Holocaust," will tell of his experience as one of the hidden ones who lived with the constant fear of discovery and possible death. Foxman was saved by his Polish Catholic nursemaid, who baptized and raised him as Catholic during the war years. Miraculously, Foxman's parents also survived, but 14 members of his family perished.

Foxman and his parents came to America in 1950, and Foxman eventually became a world-renowned leader in the fight against anti-Semitism, bigotry and discrimination. He passionately supports the State of Israel and is a voice for peace in the Middle East. He served 50 years with the Anti-Defamation League, serving as national director from 1987 until he retired in 2015. He has a law degree from New York University of Law.

The commemoration will feature a performance of French composer Maurice Ravel's "Kaddish," sung by Elliott Wulff. A display of Holocaust artwork created by area students will be on display. The Tulsa City-County Library will have Holocaust books and media available for checkout. As in year's past, there will be a memorial candle lighting in remembrance of those murdered during the Holocaust.

Dozens of local interfaith and community organizations joined the Tulsa Council for Holocaust Education of the Jewish Federation of Tulsa and the Tulsa City-County Library to make the Holocaust Commemoration a reality. The free program takes place at 7 p.m. on May 6 at Temple Israel, 2004 E. 22nd Pl., Tulsa. The public is invited, and the presentation is recommended for ages 12 and older. Contact the Jewish Federation of Tulsa at (918) 495-1100 for more information.

MEN'S HEALTH AND WELLNESS EXPO

All too often, men skip the regular screenings and preventive health practices that can give them a better chance of finding any health issues in their earliest stages when treatment options and the chances of successful recovery are greatest. The North Tulsa Community Coalition is sponsoring the Men's Health and Wellness Expo on Saturday, June 1. The first 100 attendees will receive a free barbecue lunch, and the first 50 male attendees will get a complimentary T-shirt.

The Expo is from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Tulsa Health Department's North Regional Health & Wellness Center, 5635 N. MLK Jr. Blvd., Tulsa.

The North Tulsa Community Coalition added elements to make the day fun while promoting healthy living:

- Church with the most men from their congregation in attendance will be eligible to win $250
- Free health screenings and giveaways throughout the day
- First 3x3 basketball tournament – each team pays a $25 entry fee, and the first place team wins $250. Spots are limited. Visit www.ntccunited.org/events-1 or call (918) 504-4688 to enter

With the exception of the basketball tournament, there is no charge to take part in the Expo. The day is designed for men, but women are welcome. Pre-registration is required for all participants and can be completed at www.ntccunited.org/events-1 or by calling (918) 595-4455.

CALLING ALL ARTISTS

We know there are a lot of talented artists among our readership, and we encourage our artistic friends to consider submitting art to the Broken Arrow Rose Festival Art Contest. All art must be rose-themed, and there is a limit of one entry/person/category. The maximum size is 16 inches by 20 inches, and painting and photo category entries must be matted in black and equipped with a hanger. There is a senior 60+ division for all categories:

- Painting – oil, acrylic, charcoal, watercolor, ink, pastel and pencil
- Photo – color or black and white; can be printed on various mediums
- Mixed media – fiber, pottery, metal, wood, glass, combination, 3-D, edibles, crochet, etc.

The first place winner in the senior division for each category will receive $75. Entries may be submitted from May 16 through 18 between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. (longer hours Thursday and Friday) at The Museum Broken Arrow, 400 S. Main St., Broken Arrow. Register online at www.keepbabeautiful.org under the Rose Festival tab.

On Saturday, June 1, the art contest takes place from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Museum's First Floor Exhibit Hall. Winning entries will be awarded at 2 p.m., and a reception follows from 2 to 3 p.m. Submitted artwork should be picked up during the reception.