

Library Corner: Teen Summer Reading Program

By Jennifer McQuade Owasso Library Manager May 12, 2019

Bring your tweens and teens to the library this summer! Did you know that we have a summer reading program for them too? Reading six books and coming in once is all they have to do to earn a magnetic cosmic sculpture and coupon book, and entered in to win one of our amazing grand prizes: two iPads, two laptops, two Nintendo Switch consoles, and so much more!

That's not the only reason they should come. We've got something going on for every teen. In addition to our regular teen book club, there will be two different escape rooms, video game tournaments, and making amazing tiny polymer creations with a local artist. The following is a more detailed list of events going on this summer for teenagers. All events will take place in the Owasso Library meeting room.

June 4, 4-5 p.m.

Avenging Booklings Book Club is reading "Jackaby" by William Ritter. You should read the selected book prior to the discussion. For ages 13-18.

June 10, 3-4 p.m.

Video game tournament: Come and test your skills! There are only four controllers for the video game tournament, but board games will be provided for those waiting to play. For ages 10-18.

June 17, 2-2:30 p.m. and 2:45-3:15 p.m.

Escape room: Escape the Spaceship! After years of fighting aliens in outer space, you are ready to go back to Earth. However, the spaceship has been invaded by aliens. Overwhelmed, the ship will self-destruct in 30 minutes. To unlock the escape pods, you'll need to find the code through clues and puzzle solving. There will be two 30-minute sessions for 12 participants in each session. Register online or call 918-549-7323.

July 2, 4-5 p.m.

Avenging Booklings Book Club is reading "The 100" by Kass Morgan. You should read the selected book prior to the discussion. For ages 13-18.
