Janae Jae and Jim Paul Blair will be the next local musicians to perform during Music Sandwiched In events in Central Library's Aaronson Auditorium, Fifth Street and Denver Avenue.

Music Sandwiched In is one of the highlighted programs in the summer reading program for children, teens and adults. The free annual program encourages all ages to keep the pages turning during the summer and is ongoing through Aug. 3. You can register for the summer reading program at any Tulsa City-County Library or online at tulsalibrary.org/summer.

The Music Sandwiched In series began with a June 10 performance by jazz pianist Don Ryan.

Subsequent performances are scheduled from noon to 12:50 p.m. on the following dates:
